MAGIC BEANSTALK

This is Mia and her magic beanstalk that she planted in Nursery back in June. She has been looking after it and it is growing beautifully! Let’s hope it grows strong enough to climb, who knows what we might find at the top!

HALF TERM IS HERE!

School finishes today, Friday 20th October, for the half term break and children return on Monday 30th October. We do wish all Cranmer families a very enjoyable and relaxing half term break.

‘To work hard and be respectful every day; to believe and achieve, that’s the Cranmer way.’

Cranmer’s Golden Rule is a crucial component of our ethos and high standards. The Golden Rule underpins all that we do and applies equally to children, staff and the school community.
Very well done to Opal Class for achieving the top attendance score of 98.9% for the week beginning 9th October.

‘GOLDEN TEATIME’

Every Friday afternoon, children who have been especially chosen by their class teacher for following Cranmer’s golden rule, will be able to have tea with Ms Hick. One child will be chosen from each class as a reward for their hard work, respect for others, and as a celebration of their achievements.

The children who were chosen this week were: Logan, Abinila, Finley, Jeevikha, Neriah, Skye, Adam, Jayden, Harini, Rhiannon, Steven, Ryan, Afua, Reece, Andy, Nengi and Abbiga.

WELL DONE OLIVIA!

Come on don’t you have a heart,
You don’t want these animals to depart,
To get the X factor and the to 10 singing chart,
Look at the most endangered and the poison dart,
The armour leopard, Siberian tiger and the polar bear,
They are so gorgeous, it is just not fair,
If it says a Latin name will you listen more
O Louis please don’t say it is a bore,
Komodo dragon by the way,
Why does man have to take them all away
Man is such a fool,
Snake skin hand bags this is just not cool!
Please listen to my passion
Although it may not be fashion.
I cannot sing it, you might laugh,
I cannot dance, you’ll say I look daft
But I am nine and I want these animals to last.
-By Olivia, Ruby class

If you are able to join us, please leave your name and contact details with Mrs Duffel in the Crescent office.
